Why put it off longer?

Don't wait until the last day because we're going to be so busy we're afraid you may not get just the attention you should. Many people who are just getting wise to this stupendous value-giving event are bound to get here for the final four days' wind-up, and you sure want to be one of them.

Some of the prices around this store just now would make the fellow who made the goods a fit subject for the hospital. But it's a way we have of sharing profits with our patrons, giving that little nickel such a big buying power. A fellow yesterday bought $86.40 for five cents, and he said it was just like finding money, for he said at regular prices your merchandise is the lowest in the State.

INCOME TAXPAYERS.

Possible Eligibles Are Receiving Blanks from Collector's Office.

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue H. C. Gleason has found his time well taken up since the last of September with the preliminaries of collecting the income tax from Vermonters under the new law adopted by the present administration. His work up to date has consisted in distributing the names in the 11 counties of Vermont where he has jurisdiction of people who may have incomes large enough to be taxed. As this is the first list ever made and as there seems to be no easy way to obtain it, it has naturally caused much painstaking search on the deputy collector's part. All the names are sent to headquarters at Montpelier, N. H., from where the blanks are sent out. These must be filled out and sworn to by March 1 and from them the assessments will be made and the tax collected in June. The work of collecting the original list is further complicated by several rulings which have been made by the department arising from cases where exemptions are claimed or where there is some situation which makes the law hard to apply. Mr. Gleason says Vermont will furnish many income taxpayers but just how many he is unable to state now, although the number will run up into the hundreds.

COLD TO BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY.

Intelligent people realize that common colds should be treated promptly. If there is sneezing and chills and coughing, begin promptly the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It is effective, pleasant to take, checks a cold, and stops the cough which causes loss of sleep and lowers the vital resistance. J. W. O'Sullivan, Adv.

TRUST COMPANY STOCK.

Assessor Graton Believes Certain Shares Should Hereafter Be Taxed.

A report will be made to the board of assessors at their next meeting from Claude D. Graton of the board of assessors on the subject of the taxation of 41 shares of the Burlington Trust company stock, which has been under discussion for some time. The assessors have just held a meeting with the city attorney and the officials of the bank, at which both sides of the case were discussed and the law on the subject submitted. Mr. Graton's opinion is to the effect that the stock should be placed in the list for taxation, although not at the present time. The Trust company claimed exemption from local taxation on the grounds that the stock was a trust fund and was subject only to the State tax of seven-tenths of one per cent, as provided by the law regulating trust funds. It appeared that the stock in question was transferred by Mrs. Ward to the Trust company to be held in trust for her and the opinion of Mr. Graton is to the effect that the stock is not of the kind con-

Judge H. W. Scott of Barre had the unusual experience Monday of having brought before him his former teacher, John C. Brown, on a charge of intoxication. Brown was arrested from a saloon, entered a saloon to study for the priesthood, later prepared for the bar, but he became employed in a Pennsylvania brewery as an accountant. One afternoon he was arrested for being drunk and was taken to the police station. He was later released and returned to his home in Barre. He is now a judge of his former teacher.
